

NOVEMBER NEWS OF THE ALGONQUIN ANTIQUE AUTO CLUB

The November meeting of the Algonquin Antique Auto Club was held on Sunday, November 1, 2009 in the Bainbridge Historical Museum. Twenty-eight members and guests enjoyed a harvest dinner, to the credit of Peter Ferrante, who once again demonstrated his chef capabilities by cooking the turkey. The dinner was followed by a short business meeting and it was once again noted how successful this past year's car show was. It brought in the most funds the treasury has ever had available. Improved registration procedures were discussed. Charlie Davis has already undertaken the task of making up pre-registration cards for our usual attending participants. It is planned to have two lines, with one just for pre-registered cars. This should help speed up the process. The recommendation was made not to charge flea market participants this next year, hoping to attract more of these vendors to be part of the show. Mr. Davis also made up copies of the member lists and passed out to each one, so that each member has the ability to be in touch with each other. Any corrections to the list were to be noted.

The club is now looking forward to their annual Christmas dinner scheduled for Sunday, December 6, 2009 at 2:00 P..M. at Parson's Place. This is for members and workers at the car show. Grab bag gifts are to be exchanged with men bringing one for men and women for women. Any of those wishing to attend should call our Vice President, Ruth Steffen at 967-7213, and let her know your preference of prime rib or chicken.

Our next regular meeting will be scheduled for Sunday, January 3, 2010 at 2 P.M. at the Bainbridge Historical Museum. New people are always welcome to join us, just bring a dish to pass for our buffet lunch/meeting.
